

Lindsay M. Schoeneberger

Lindsay Schoeneberger joined Russell, Krafft & Gruber, LLP following a clerkship with the Honorable Jay J. Hoberg of the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County. Prior to clerking she worked in private practice in Monroe County.

Lindsay is a 2010 cum laude graduate of Widener University School of Law. She obtained her B.A. from Muhlenberg College in 2007. Lindsay was a member of the Widener Law Journal and a clinic leader at the Harrisburg Civil Law Clinic. She also worked as an intern for the Office of Inspector General through the Governor's Office of General Counsel Summer Legal Externship Program.

Lindsay's approach to estate planning is appreciated by all of her clients regardless of their stage in life or the size of their estate. Lindsay's attention to detail is important for clients needing a simple Will and for those requiring a complex trust or other planning strategies. She brings the same skills and level of care when probating and settling an estate. Lindsay recognizes and addresses the unique needs of each of her clients and their families.

Lindsay concentrates her practice in Estate Planning, Estate Administration, Elder Law, Orphans' Court Litigation, Guardianships and Adoption Law, providing personalized counsel and effective legal representation.

Lindsay is a member of the Lancaster Bar Association where she actively participates in the Young Lawyers Division.
