

Benjamin A. Gingrich

Ben Gingrich is a native of Lancaster, growing up in Lititz, Pennsylvania and graduating from Lancaster Catholic High School. He began his legal career as a Judicial Clerk to the Honorable Howard F. Knisely of the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County and gained additional experience while serving as a Summer Associate for a law firm in York, Pennsylvania.

As a Clerk in the Court of Common Pleas in Lancaster County, Ben wrote legal briefs on a variety of issues and often worked with criminal appeals, premise liability, and landlord/tenant disputes. During his tenure as a Clerk, Ben was also able to observe the decision-making process from the judicial perspective. That experience assists in shaping his legal strategies and enhances his ability to provide effective legal counsel for his clients at Russell, Krafft, and Gruber.

As a homegrown attorney, Ben understands the nuances of the Lancaster legal community which will help him negotiate more effectively and obtain the best results for his clients. Ben is a member of the Lancaster County and Pennsylvania Bar Associations. He resides in Leola with his girlfriend Madison.

Did you know? Ben earned his Eagle Scout in 2009 and still continues to practice his skills by doing overnight backpacking trips on the weekend.
