

Brandon S. Harter

Brandon Harter is a Partner with Russell, Krafft & Gruber, LLP. Brandon uses an efficient, tech-savvy approach to provide quality legal counsel to his business, municipal, and individual clients. And for Brandon's clients in the tech sector, his love of technology brings an additional level of understanding about the unique challenges they face.

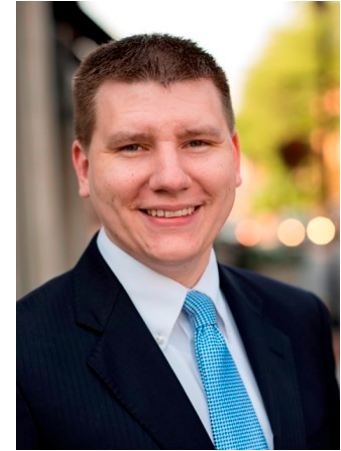

Brandon's practice regularly involves handling lawsuits in the Pennsylvania and Federal courts. In those disputes, his eDiscovery knowledge provides an invaluable resource to improve his client's chances of victory. Brandon also serves as a discovery master who is appointed by the Court to help other lawyers resolve their discovery disputes.

Outside the litigation arena, Brandon's practice regularly includes reviewing contracts and providing advice on employment law and municipal law issues. Brandon's unique experience and perspective are invaluable to his clients on privacy, data security, and social media issues that increasingly arise for both private businesses and public entities.

Brandon joined Russell, Krafft & Gruber, LLP in 2016 after several years with the former Lancaster firm of Hartman, Underhill & Brubaker where he began his career. Before that, Brandon served as a Clerk to the Honorable A. Richard Caputo, District Judge, Middle District of Pennsylvania. He is a magna cum laude graduate of Dickinson College and an honors graduate of William & Mary School of Law, Order of the Coif, Order of the Barristers.

Brandon resides in Mountville with his wife, Cassandra, and their four children. In addition to his legal practice, Brandon is also the founder and manager of Gathering Mist eDiscovery Solutions.
